

LOCAL HISTORY PHOTOGRAPHIC AWARDS 2009

There were three equal prizes in each section, and the winners each receive a plaque and a cheque for $100.

THE WINNERS

Pre-1926

Rod Burton

Edna Robinson, aged 4, at the WA Hunt Club meet in North Perth, 1924

Gael Connell

Norma Hart outside the 'bough shed' in the back garden of 401 Oxford Street, Mt Hawthorn, 1920

Christine Foulkes-Taylor

127 Lincoln Street, Highgate, the home of Richard and Isabel Peploe from around 1900 to 1903, taken in 1902

Inscription in album 'The 'appy 'ome' Jan: 1902

1926-1950

Leeola Loughnan

The 'boys' playing cricket using the lamp post as a wicket, 1946

Colin Ross, Melton Barnes, Gordon Manuel and Graham Edmondson playing cricket outside 56 Auckland Street (the home of the Pittaway family) in Mount Hawthorn. Photograph taken by Mrs Margaret Ross

Dawn Fisher

Wedding reception for Peter and Dawn Fisher in North Perth Town Hall, 8 January 1949.

The side doors of the hall were open. Perth had a power on and off every hour. It was very hot and to add to all that Argentine ants had got into the food as well as the wedding cake but everyone was happy – 108 degrees was not unusual for January and February back then.

Groomsman Allan Fisher and bridesmaid Elma Sims

Sue Engberg

John Abbot (Jack) Napier, aged 48, with his son Roy Edward Napier, aged 4, at the family wood yard, 492 Charles Street, North Perth, 1929

Jack kept the wood yard up until WWII when he enlisted at the age of 60 (he put his age down) in the Australian Army. He served as a Sergeant in New Guinea. After the War he discontinued the wood yard and just kept his stable business going.

1951-1979

Bob Brabazon

Plane crash at Kyilla Primary School, 27 February 1951

A flight by the Riley Brothers ended up in the grounds of Kyilla School. The building that can be seen behind the plane in the bottom photograph is the toilet block.

Richard Maiorana

Four generations playing party games at a birthday party at 5 Scott Street, Leederville, early 1950s

Ian Atkins

Scarborough Bus Service bus on Scarborough Beach Road, passing the Ritz Theatre at the top of Oxford Street, 1960

Photo Study (A new section this year, where entrants were invited to submit a series of photographs which told a story.)

Merle Morris

Mount Hawthorn Congregational Church, corner of Scarborough Beach Road and Flinders Street in 1951 and then in 1959 at the last evening service. (This is now the site of The Mezz.)

Christine Foulkes-Taylor

46 Alma Road, North Perth, home of the Peploe family from around 1904 to 1946, showing the interior and exterior in 1905

Ron Venables

A series of six photographs showing a parade in Oxford Street in 1958, which went from the Leederville School to the Venables Service Station – which is now land under the Mitchell Freeway.

